EXPLANATORY NOTES

(a) General information

The New South Wales Inmate Census was conducted as part of the National Australian Prison Census for the 30th June 2007. The first Australian National Prison Census was conducted on 30th June 1982 and both the NSW and National inmate censuses have been conducted annually since that time. Previous publication of the NSW Inmate Census can be obtained from the Department of Corrective Services' website (www.dcs.nsw.gov.au). National prison census publications are published by the Australian Bureau of Statistics ABS (see "Prisoners in Australia" ABS Catalogue 4517.0).

(b) Scope of data collection

Prior to 2007, the scope of the NSW Inmate Census was based strictly on inmates held in gazetted correctional centres and periodic detention centres as at midnight on 30 June each year. Despite the fact that the NSW Department of Corrective Services had managed inmates in police/court complexes since 1992 and transitional centres since 1996, these inmates were not considered for inclusion in the scope of the census data collection because they were not held in gazetted correctional centres. Since 1997, this publication has included these statistics as separate totals for inmates held in police/court complexes and transitional centres.

Aside from the Census, the scope of all other full-time inmate population data collections published by the Department include gazetted correctional centres, police/court complexes and transitional centres. For conformity, in 2007 the scope of the Census has been aligned with these statistical collections. Therefore this 2007 publication marks a minor break in the previously published series NSW Inmate Census series. For example, in 2007, a total of 28 inmates were held in transitional centres and 43 in police/court complexes compared to a total of 9486 in gazetted correctional centres.

The scope of the NSW Inmate Census now incorporates:

- Inmates held in full-time custody in gazetted correctional centres (as previously)
- Inmates held in full-time custody in transitional centres (introduced in 2007)
- Inmates held in full-time custody in police/court complexes managed by the Department of Corrective Services (introduced in 2007), and
- Inmates held in periodic detention custody in gazetted periodic detention centres (as previously)

This publication contains summary statistics of inmates held in full-time custody in New South Wales at midnight on the 30th June 2007 and of inmates with a "live" order for periodic detention as at 30th June 2007. Inmates temporarily absent from a correctional centre (as at midnight on Census night) under s26 of the Crimes (Administration of Sentences) Act, 1999 have been excluded with the exception of those inmates housed at Parramatta Transitional Centre and Bolwara House Transitional Centre (Emu Plains). Police custody "police-bail refused" detainees held in police/court complexes as at midnight on 30 June under the management of departmental staff are also included. Trends in the population within each custodial setting as at 30 June from 1982 to 2007 are detailed in Section 5 (See Table 5.1).

The revised scope for this publication is now more closely aligned with the scope of the National Australian Prison Census. However, as a census of adult prisoners, the National Census excludes inmates held at Kariong Juvenile Correctional Centre (regardless of age). On 30 June 2007 there were 33 inmates held at Kariong Juvenile Correctional Centre.

(c) Concept of an episode of imprisonment

Statistical information describing inmate legal status, type of sentence, court type, sentence terms, most serious offence etc. all relate to the episode of imprisonment current at the 30th June 2007. For the purposes of this publication, an episode of imprisonment is taken as a continuous period of imprisonment under the management of the NSW Department of Corrective Services within NSW.

In distinguishing between the current and any previous episode of imprisonment the following rules were applied:

- i. for inmates held in custody for breach of a parole or licence order relating to a previous period(s) of imprisonment, the previous period(s) of imprisonment is/are excluded from the current episode;
- ii. any period of imprisonment prior to a release from a court where the inmate was subsequently freed without having been returned to full-time custody within 1 day, was excluded from the current episode;
- iii. any period of imprisonment prior to a transfer into police custody where the inmate was subsequently freed without having been returned to full-time custody within 5 days, was excluded from the current episode;
- iv. any period of imprisonment prior to release on bail, on a bond or to immigration authorities was excluded from the current episode;
- v. any period of imprisonment prior to transfer to an institution other than a NSW correctional centre (including Kariong Juvenile Correctional Centre), a transitional centre or police/court complex operated by the Department was excluded from the current episode. For example, this excludes detention in a psychiatric hospital, juvenile or interstate correctional institution.

- vi. for inmates who had escaped from the custody of the NSW Department of Corrective Services and had been subsequently returned to custody, the episode of imprisonment current at the time of the escape was included in the current episode;
- vii. for inmates who have had their periodic detention order cancelled and were now serving the sentence by way of full-time imprisonment, or have been placed into full-time custody in relation to other offences, the period of periodic detention imprisonment was excluded from the current episode.
- viii. for inmates returned to periodic detention (after a period of full-time imprisonment) to serve the remainder of an original sentence by way of periodic detention, the original episode of periodic detention (prior to full-time imprisonment) is included in the current episode.

(d) Aboriginality

An inmate is recorded as an Aboriginal/TSI where they have identified as such in any current or previous episode.

(e) Known prior imprisonment as an adult

For the purposes of this publication known prior imprisonment includes any episode of imprisonment within periodic detention or full-time custody. Prior imprisonment includes imprisonment under a court issued order within a police/court cell complexes managed by the Department of Corrective Services but excludes any period of detention managed by the NSW Department of Corrective Services as a police-bail refused detainee under "Form 7" of the NSW Bail Regulation 1999.

Prior to 1999, prior adult imprisonment was based simply on whether an inmate had any known episode of prior imprisonment as an adult in a gazetted correctional centre in NSW. A hierarchy of sub-categories of known prior imprisonment based on custodial program and legal status was introduced in 1999. Where there is more than one period of prior imprisonment of a particular sub-category, the highest sub-category is used. The sub-categories, from lowest to highest, are:

- i. an episode of periodic detention;
- ii. an episode on remand in a full-time correctional centre;
- iii. an episode in full-time custody for fine default;
- iv. an episode in full-time custody under sentence.

(f) English speaking status of country of birth

Country of birth classification is based on the Standard Australian Classification of Countries (SACC) (Australian Bureau of Statistics Catalogue No: 1269.0, ABS 1998). English speaking status of the country of birth is based on the "Main English speaking countries" as identified in ABS publication "Australian Standard Classification of Countries for Social Statistics" (ASCCSS) (ABS Catalogue No. 1269.0). The main English speaking countries comprise: Australia, Canada, New Zealand, Republic of Ireland, South Africa, United Kingdom (Channel Islands, England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland) and the United States of America).

(g) Legal status

For the purpose of this publication, inmates have been classified to one of the following seven legal status categories:

- i. under sentence - no appeal;
- ii. awaiting result of appeal against conviction or sentence;
- iii. detained as a forensic patient;
- iv. unconvicted (awaiting court hearing/trial);
- v. awaiting deportation;
- vi. awaiting extradition to another jurisdiction; or
- vii. civil inmate (held in custody for an offence other than a criminal offence).

The category "convicted but awaiting sentence" has been removed as this legal status is not able to be determined from available records. Inmates with this status are now categorised as "unconvicted" inmates. Inmates held as Police custody "police-bail refused" detainees are recorded as unconvicted inmates.

(h) Type of sentence

This item relates to the aggregate sentence imposed (see explanatory note (m)). The category "Life sentence" includes (a) persons with an "existing Life sentence" (i.e. those sentenced to Life imprisonment under the legislation preceding the Life Sentences Amendment Act, 1989 and who have yet to have the sentence redetermined by the Supreme Court), (b) persons sentenced to "Natural Life" under the Crimes Act, 1900 as amended by the Life Sentences Amendment Act, 1989 and (c) persons who have had an "existing Life sentence" redetermined to a sentence composed of a non-parole period of a term of years and a balance of sentence (i.e. parole period) of "Life".

The category "Forensic patient" is composed of those persons identified as "forensic patients" under the terms of the Mental Health Act 1990. This incorporates persons found not guilty by reason of mental illness, persons found unfit to be tried and persons certified to be mentally ill. Within the category of persons certified to be mentally ill, since 2006 only those held in a gazetted prison hospital (namely Long Bay Hospital) at the time of the census are recorded as "Forensic patients". Inmates held in full-time custody (convicted or unconvicted) who also have a current order for periodic detention are counted as full-time custody inmates.

Amendments to the Periodic Detention of Prisoners Act 1981 (Periodic Detention of Prisoners Amendment Act 1998 (No. 43)) enabled courts to set "minimum" and "additional" terms when imposing a sentence to be served by way of periodic detention. These changes were incorporated in the new legislation (Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999) with respective changes to the sentence type terminology, as explained above. In this publication, periodic detention sentences are described as either "Periodic (Sentence/Non-Parole)" or "Periodic (Sentence/Parole declined)".

A new fine enforcement system for NSW was introduced from 27 January 1998 under the Fines Act 1996 and is based on a hierarchy of civil and non-custodial sanctions with imprisonment as a sanction of last resort. Inmates with a sentence type of "Fine default" are held only for reason of default on a commonwealth or interstate fine (i.e. there are no outstanding charges or current sentences). The last fine defaulter was received into custody in NSW in August 2004.

(i) Level and State of court

This item represents the level and State of court at which (for sentenced inmates) the current sentence for the most serious offence was imposed. For unsentenced inmates, the court at which the most recent order for detention for the most serious offence (see explanatory note (k) below) is used. Appeal courts were recorded only where such courts have altered the length of sentence relating to the most serious offence. The court of conviction is shown as State Parole Authority (formerly the NSW Parole Board) where the court of most serious offence was recorded as such. Inmates detained for reason of deportation only are shown under "Immigration Authority".

The NSW Drug Court program commenced on February 8, 1999 as a non-custodial program for illicit drug dependant offenders charged with non-violent offences. Inmates shown with a court of "Drug Court" are convicted offenders either (a) held in custody as unsentenced inmates by the Drug Court pending determination of or placement on their program, (b) in custody serving a "sanction" for a breach of the Drug Court order or (c) had their program terminated and were subsequently ordered by the Drug Court to serve the original suspended sentence by imprisonment in full-time custody.

(j) Classification of offences

In this publication the classification of offences has been based on the Australian Standard Offence Classification, 1997 (ASOC) (ABS Catalogue No. 1234.0). A summary of the classification is given in Appendix 1. Prior to 2007, offences were classified according to the Second Revision of the New South Wales Classification of Offences and of Care and Protection Orders for Children (ANCO). An ASOC to ANCO concordance is provided as part of the ABS publication (see Appendix 4). In general (as with ANCO), offences involving attempt, inciting, aiding or being an accessory before the fact are classified to the offence category so attempted etc. Under ASOC, however conspiracy offences (with the exception of conspiracy to murder) are classified to "Division 13 - Public Order Offences".

(k) Most serious offence

Although an inmate may be held by the Department of Corrective Services for a number of different offences, only the most serious offence in the current imprisonment episode has been recorded in these statistics. The most serious offence is the offence for which the longest sentence was imposed for a single count regardless of the possible result of any appeals. Where no sentence had been imposed at 30 June 2007, or two different offences had equal sentences, the offence with the lowest (NSW) offence code number was chosen.

A table detailing historical trends in most serious offence using the Australian Standard Offence Classification (ASOC) is provided in Section 5 (see Table 5.8).

(l) Federal offences

The identification of inmates with federal offence(s) is based on the federal status of all offences relating to the current imprisonment episode regardless of where a sentence had been imposed for that offence at the time of the census. Federal offences are identified using only the description of the offence as recorded on court documents provided to the department.

(m) Aggregate sentence

This item represents the longest period that a person may be detained under sentence in the current episode and includes any "balance of sentence" terms. Pending charges that are likely to extend the aggregate sentence are ignored. In the case of an inmate serving the balance of a sentence after revocation of parole or licence, only the balance of the sentence is included, as distinct from publications previous to 1998 where the whole of the original sentence was included.

The category "Forensic patient" includes all persons with a legal status or sentence type of "Forensic patient". The aggregate sentence length for "Life" and certain "Forensic patient" sentence types is indeterminate as the sentencing court does not impose a sentence expiry date for these sentences (refer to explanatory note (h) above).

(n) Inmate security classification

Inmates in correctional centres are classified in accordance with the Crimes (Administration of Sentences) Regulation 2001 (Clauses 22, 23 and 24), incorporating the classification system for female inmates introduced on 4 July 1997. Inmates held at the Compulsory Drug Treatment Centre are not classified according to the regulations and are shown separately. Security classification sub-categories for unsentenced inmates were introduced into this publication in 1999. In this publication the security classification current at the 30 June 2007 is shown. It should be noted that some convicted inmates may have an "unconvicted" inmate security classification if they were facing further and more serious charges or they had not been re-classified at the time of the Census.

Classification of periodic detainees is undertaken by the Periodic Detention Review Committee. Statistical reporting of the classification of periodic detainees based on this administrative security classification system was introduced into this publication in 1999. Periodic detention Stage 1 security classification refers to detainees who are required to attend a periodic detention centre during each detention period. Periodic detention Stage 2 detainees are not required to attend a periodic detention centre during each detention period, instead these detainees stay overnight in their own home and report to a work site or detention centre (as required) each detention period.

On summary sheets, Maximum security includes all unclassified inmates and both convicted and unconvicted inmates classified as AA, A1, A2, E1 and Category 5 (females). Medium security includes both convicted and unconvicted inmates classified as B, E2 and Category 4 (Females). Minimum security includes both convicted and unconvicted inmates classified as C1, C2, C3, Category 1, 2 and 3 (females) and inmates held at the Compulsory Drug Treatment Centre.

(o) Significant events

The following is a summary of significant legislative and operational changes enacted between 30 June 2006 and 30 June 2007 which may have had a significant impact on the size and characteristics of the NSW inmate population:

- The Crimes (Serious Sex Offenders) Act 2006 commenced on 3 April 2006 to provide for the supervision and detention of serious sex offenders.
- The Compulsory Drug Treatment Correctional Centre Act 2004 commenced on 21 July 2006 amending the Drug Court Act 1998, the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999 and the Crimes (Administration of Sentences) Act 1999 to provide for the compulsory treatment and rehabilitation of recidivist drug offenders, including detention in the Compulsory Drug Treatment Correctional Centre.
- The Crimes (Administration of Sentences) Amendments (Parole) Act 2004 commenced on 10 October 2006, principally reconstituting the Parole Board as the State Parole Authority.
- The Crimes (Administration of Sentences) Amendment Act 2006 commenced on 1 December 2006 stipulating that periodic detainees who have had their order revoked and were held in full-time custody may not apply for reinstatement of the periodic detention order until they had spent three months in custody following the revocation and must indicate what they have done or are doing to ensure compliance with the order if reinstated.

1. Some convicted inmates may have an "unconvicted" inmate classification if they were facing further and more serious charges or had not been re-classified at the time of the census. Therefore the total number of inmates with "convicted" inmate classifications may not be equal to the total number of convicted inmates.

1. Some convicted inmates may have an "unconvicted" inmate classification if they were facing further and more serious charges or had not been re-classified at the time of the census. Therefore the total number of inmates with "convicted" inmate classifications may not be equal to the total number of convicted inmates.

1. Transitional Centres commenced operation in September 1996.

2. The Department began managing a small number of Police/Court Complexes in 1992 and operations in this area have increased since 1999). Data on the number of inmates held in these places of detention as at 30 June each year is not available prior to 1999.

3. Total Inmate Population incorporates full-time custody and periodic detention. In previous publications "Total inmates" included inmates held in gazetted correctional centres and periodic detention centres only and excluded transitional centres and police/court complexes (see explanatory note (b)).
